

How to get to Lufthansa Technik Shenzhen

Dear guest,

we are happy to welcome you to our company!

To guarantee a safe and comfortable trip to us, we would like to give you some helpful advise of how to reach us.

The easiest way to get around in Shenzhen is by taxi. As most people don't speak English, it is helpful to have your destination written in Chinese characters with you. You can find a list of major destinations below.

To avoid being ripped off, use the official red cabs (outside the city border e.g. at the airport, they are green) and ask the driver to use the taximeter. In addition to this you might be charged a road fee if you are using the tollway. When you get off you can ask for the invoice (发票, say: fapiao).

If you leave the city border, e.g. when you come to our facility, you should have your passport with you, as occasionally it will be checked when you re-enter the city district.

When you come from Hong Kong Airport the fastest way to Shenzhen is by ferry. Please do not immigrate into Hong Kong and do not go to the baggage claim to pick up your luggage. Once immigrated into Hong Kong you can not go back to the boat. Within the transfer area there is the ferry desk. The personnel will scan your luggage tag and deliver it to the ferry for you. You will receive it upon arrival in China mainland.

... to the facility:

Take the ferry to Shenzhen, Fuyong (深圳,福永). From Fuyong ferry station you can take a taxi to LTS (approx. 20 RMB) or we will help you arrange the transport for you in advance.

... to all major hotels:

Take the ferry to Shenzhen, Shekou (深圳,蛇口). From there you can reach the Fraser Place (泰格公寓), the Cruise Inn (明华轮酒店) and the Honlux Hotel within just 2 minutes by taxi (12.5 RMB). The Holiday Inn hotel is around 15 min away from the port. The Nanhai hotel is right next to the ferry station.

... by bus / train:

If you arrive late or accidentally immigrated into Hong Kong you can either take the bus or the train. The bus ticket counter is in the arrival hall, follow the “Coach to China Mainland” signs. You go to the border Huang Gang (皇岗). From there you can use a taxi within Shenzhen. If you stay at the Holiday Inn or Nanhai hotel, ask for direct transfer by the bus company.

The Airport Express leaves from the arrival hall. You get off at the Hong Kong station. From there it's just 10 minutes walk or two minutes by taxi to the “Hong Kong Macau Ferry terminal”, where ferries to both, Shenzhen Fuyong and Shenzhen Shekou, are leaving.
